The want of the people can be again supplied—The finest lot of jewelry, silverware and tableware ever brought to Edenton at A. J. Bateman's.

No need to take those big cathartic pills; one of Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Pills is quite sufficient and more agreeable sold by H. A. Bond.

Dont forget to call and examine my new stock. I'll have a display during the Fair on the grounds to which attention is invited. No trouble to show goods. Call either on the fair grounds or, at the store of A. J. Bateman, Main street, Edenton.

Faults of digestion cause disorders of the liver, and the whole system becomes deranged. Dr. J. H. McLean's Sarsaparilla perfects the process of digestion and assimilation, and thus makes pure blood sold by H. A. Bond.

UNANIMOUSLY ADOPTED

BY THE CHOWAN COUNTY FARMERS' ALLIANCE JULY 4, 1889.

RESOLVED, That we adopt the FISH-ERMAN AND FARMER as the organ of Chowan County Alliance and of the Sub Alliances composing it.

Scales and Plants.

Plenty of music at the fair.

Another goat race to-day.

Five excursions here on yesterday.

Excellent market this week.

Large excursion from E. City on Thursday.

To-day will be another big day at the fair grounds.

Did you see the FISHERMAN & FARMER display at the fair?

Mrs. Bell, of Camden, is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Whetston.

No fights and but little drunkardness on our streets this week.

Our young men all happy this week—town full of young ladies.

The Misses Schultz, of E. City, are the guest of Mrs. O. Newsman.

The best weather possible this week. How happy it makes the people?

Miss Gilliam and Miss Leigh, of Perquimans, are among the visitors in our city.

Miss Louise Darden, one of the charming belles of Suffolk, is visiting our city.

Miss Lou Davis, one of the fair daughters of E. City, is visiting Mrs. E. W. Burton.

The E. City fair comes off next week. How many of our people will attend it?

Quite a number of visiting young ladies in town delighting the society of our good people.

The display of musical instruments at the Fair is as good as any man could wish to see.

The inevitable gambler was present during the fair, going for the innocent and the foolish.

Our thanks are due Mr. T. B. Berry, owner of the E. City News, for courtesies extended us this week.

All of the Stockholders of the Edenton Agricultural and Fish Fair will meet at the main building to day.

Our report of the Fair this week is necessarily limited. We will give full particulars in a later issue of this paper.

Any one wishing to purchase a nice desirable house and lot would do well to read the "ad" of J. M. Jones in this issue.

Hon. T. G. Skinner and Lady were in attendance upon the Fair, also many others from Hertford our charming sister town.

The presence of our old friend and former neighbor, Mr. B. A. Capehart, on the grounds of the Fair was a pleasure worthy indeed of record.

The racing at the fair was well conducted. It created the usual amount of interest and raised a pleasant excitement in which even the ladies participated.

Gen'l. W. P. Roberts makes a good officer wherever you may put him. His presence and services during the Fair will never cease to be appreciated.

The most delicate constitution can safely use Dr. J. H. McLean's Tar Wine Lung Balm. It is a sure remedy for coughs, loss of voice, and all throat and lung troubles, for sale by H. A. Bond.

Miss Mattie Guirkin and Miss Cook, two of the fair maidens of E. City, and Miss Perkins and Miss Wilkens, young ladies of many charming attractions, of Washington, N. C., are visiting Miss Cora Mitchell.

Dizziness, nausea, drowsiness, distress after eating, can be cured and prevented by taking Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Pills (little pills), sold by H. A. Bond.

Our hotels and boarding-houses were all crowded to the very utmost this week. The Fair has been the magnet by us predicted. It draws and, as long as it continues in proper management, it will continue to attract.

The E. City Band was up, according to intention previously expressed and joined our boys in making music for the Fair on Thursday. They are good boys and make most excellent music. In behalf the entire public, we thank them for their coming and earnestly hope they will come again.

Even the most vigorous and hearty people have at times a feeling of weariness and lassitude. To dispel this feeling take Dr. J. H. McLean's Sarsaparilla; it will impart vigor and vitality sold at H. A. Bond's.

The moral difference between a common gambler and a dirty thief is found only in the fact that one is privileged, on some occasions, and the other is sent to the penitentiary.

Only one drunk man was to be seen on the Fair grounds during the whole time of the exposition. How is that for temperance? Public sentiment is worth a great deal.

The music, on the occasion of the ball at the Court House, was exceedingly fine. We congratulate the managers upon their ability to secure such.

A man can gamble until he becomes but little better than a common dog. We saw evidences of human degradation, during the Fair, that put us to shame for the human race.

"Maud S", the horse raised by Mr. Abram Bonner, of this county, added lustre to her previously won reputation in the races this week. It was amusing to hear the Edenton boys cheer the animal as it would pass the judges stand acting as if she, herself, was conscious of the victory she had won and was proud of it.

People here from E. City, Camden, Currituck Perquimans, Bertie, Gates, Hertford, Wayne, Halifax, Washington, Tyrrell, Craven, Pitt, Dare, Carteret, Warren, Martin, Beaufort, Hyde, Edgecombe, Northampton, Greene and other counties beside many, from other States, to us unknown.

THE FAIR BALL.

The Fair Ball was a grand success. A goodly number, of our very best people, were seen on the floor and all presented an appearance worthy themselves and the high character of the occasion that brought them together.

The Hall, naturally fine, was beautifully decorated and presented a scene of loveliness akin to that witnessed in olden time when, in the opinion of the writer, the Albemarle section could boast of more pretty and intelligent women than any other of the known world. This is a broad assertion but, Bro. Creecy of the Economist, who knows the truth of what we say, will corroborate our statement.

The gentlemen were dressed in full ball costume and among the ladies we are only able to note the following:

Miss Perkins, of Washington, white silk and lace, gold ornaments.

Miss Fannie Green, Edenton, pink moire and Chinese gauze, diamonds.

Miss Wilkens, Washington, pink satin and lace, gold ornaments.

Miss Cara Mitchell, Edenton, white satin, crystal trimmings and diamonds.

Miss Emily Green, Edenton, pink moire and Chinese gauze, diamonds.

Miss Poindexter, Virginia, pink silk, blue lace and pearls.

Miss Annie Gilliam, Hertford, white lace and surah silk, pearls.

Miss Maggie Warren, Edenton, blue silk, black lace and diamonds.

Miss Lizzie Badham, Edenton, pink silk, black lace, diamonds.

Miss Lizzie Skinner, Hertford, white albatros, silk and silver ornaments.

Miss Ella Taylor, Washington, white silk and diamonds.

Miss Preet, Virginia, black lace and coral ornaments.

Miss Grizzie Leigh, Durant's Neck, white cashmere and moire, pearls and diamonds.

Miss Mary G. Capehart, Bertie, blue cashmere.

Miss Genett Martin, Bertie, blue cashmere.

Miss Mattie Guirkin, E. City, terracotta plush, pink silk and diamonds.

Miss Sophie Martin, Bertie, blue albatros and silk, pearls.

Miss Mary Righton, Edenton, pale gauze, angle sleeves, pearls.

Miss Annie Wood, Edenton, handsome black silk, trimmed in pashment, diamonds.

All parties indebted to said estate are requested to make payment at once.

A. J. WARD, Adm'r.
Gliden N. C, Oct, 28th, 1889.

Some Like Him.

"Was going up on the car the other night," he said, "and met a friend on the platform. Had a big package under his arm. Offered him a cigar. He took it. Didn't know till he got off that he had four boxes under his arm. What do you think of that?"

"Rather odd."

"Should smile to ripple! Made a mistake, however, and gave him a cigar that was loaded. Had it loaded to blow my brother's head off."

"And it exploded?"

"Better life! Maybe you have seen a man out riding with no eyebrows and his nose done up in a rag. Same man. Never speak to me again. So long."—Detroit Free Press.

A Pertinent Name.

Caller—Isn't Sub-Rosa a rather peculiar name for a servant, Mrs. Lightfoot?

Mrs. Lightfoot—Yes; her name is Rosa, and we've added the prefix.

Caller—Oh, I see, because you are all under the Rosa.—Life.

H. M. SHAW, A. M., Principal.
A letter from President Taylor:

PRESIDENT'S OFFICE.

WAKE FOREST, June 25, '89.

It is with great pleasure that I bear testimony to the excellent character and scholarship of Mr. Henry M. Shaw, of Currituck county, N. C.

During the several years of his student life Mr. Shaw won the respect and esteem of his instructors by the faithfulness of his work and the excellence of his deportment. After completing the entire course of study at Wake Forest, he received, at our last Commencement, the degree of Master of Arts.

I can very cordially and conscientiously recommend him as a teacher.

THAS. E. TAYLOR,
President W. F. College.

FISH GILL NETS.

For the coming season we, as usual, invite the attention of all Dealers and Fishermen to our own brands and makes of Threads, Nets and Nettings.

First, our (S) brand of Flax Gilling Thread is equal in every respect to our standard of former seasons. This make will have our name upon every package and is NOT GENUINE WITHOUT IT.

In cotton Gill Nettings and Twines, we would refer to our

"FISHERMEN" and "GOLD MEDAL"

Brands, which are exclusively our own and are never sold as twine without our name upon each package, containing 5 pounds. For SHAD Netting they are unexcelled, being light, strong and cheap. We guarantee the qualities of our brands.

POUND & SEINE NETTINGS.

Made from our "Shepard Gold Medal" Twines. These twines, as the larger fishermen of the country already know, have no superior, if any equal, as they are manufactured by us directly from the raw cotton of a high quality.

All orders carefully and promptly executed and we beg to assure our old and new friends, always at as low prices and favorable terms, as from any other party in America.
